

Charlotte Deviled Eggs

words & photography: Tonya Russ Price

In the South, Deviled Eggs are a staple for cookouts, gatherings and picnics. The perfect, bite-sized hors d'oeuvre. There's a reason why they get gobbled up the minute you serve these tasty treats. I'm so happy to see that they are back in fashion and on many menus nowadays. Of course, some make them fancy smancy, but most just keep them simple. One of my friends told me that in Louisiana they call them Dressed Eggs. They're referred to as Angel Eggs by those of the church persuasion. People even call them Stuffed Eggs. No matter what you call them, covered in paprika, they sure are a sight to behold.

(Below are three local mainstays where you can enjoy deviled eggs.)

The Summit Room
1531 East Blvd., 28203
www.theSummitRM.com

Park Ten Lanes
1700 Montford Dr., 28209
www.RollTen.com

Block + Grinder
2935 Providence Rd., 28211
www.BlockAndGrinder.com